FARMVILLE.

They tell us there is nothing new under the sun, but this is a mistake, for there was an animated debate between a well selected number of girls chosen from the two literary societies of the State Female Normal, on last Monday evening. "Befo de wah" such a thing was as unknown as the local option of the North pole. There is no objection to it, for never was an audience more highly entertained and never were combatants better armed for the fray. When Argus meets Cunningham then comes the ting of war. One thing I am going to avoid as I would poison, and that is being a judge on such occasions.

The Normal was well represented at the great Education al Conference at Richmond and those who attended returned to their wo k with renewed enthusiasm for it.

The skating rink is still a form of amusement, and, strange to say, those who fall hardest are most devoted to it.

Our Y. M. C. A. has departed this life but its estate has been administered and debts all paid.

Horse racing is likly to become a permanent institution with us.

The dispensary is doing double duty now-a-days and as Christmas approaches will still quicken its step. It opens at sunrise and closes at sunset. There are no exceptions to this rule. |

Our real estate agents are busy showing parties around but I hear of but few sales. One Mr. Summers who operated here a few years ago, was the greatest seller of farm lands this country ever knew of.

Mr. H. E. Wall is Farmville's only retired capitalist. The late Mr. C. D. Fleming was the only other one of that class in the history of the town so far as my memory serves me. Our successful men as a rule, have fallen with the harness on. I now re'all the fact that M. R. H. Jackson did retire from active business many years prior to his death and enjoyed in full measure the evening of life. I remember to have heard him say that the people of Farmville were the most loyal to their town of any on earth and that the man or woman who had failed here were never satisfied to live elsewhere. For social, educational and religious advantages it has no superior. Our little itself makes it the most attractive living place in the State. The Normal girls fall in love with the town and many of them return to live with us.

The Methodist church is so far advanced that we begin to appreciate what an ornament it will be to our town when finished.

The work on the Normal also nears completion and it too will be the pride not only of Farmville but of all Virginia, when it has received its last touches.

Our merchants are urging early Xmas shopping, and they are right. Santa Claus may be a myth, but he is monstrous practical to pa and ma. Reindeer may make music in the air but they bring no money with them. Credit, however is the world's best friend.

The present crop of tobacco is said to be unusually inferior and yet it fetches the cash just the same.

And it must be comforting to our farmer friends to know that the lower grades are selling better than the higher. At the Star bugs have been selling from $5 to $7, short from $6 to $9 and the long from $8 to $12. No matter what it brings our farmers will plant again. The late Dr. Dabney, in his day the leading thinker in his church, used to say that the success growers of Southside Virginia were the hardest workers known to earth.

I did the dispensary injustice in my estimate of its profits in a recent communication. One of those in charge has just told me that it would make a profit of $15,000 for the current year. As a friend is accustomed to say, "old boots is still on top," and sail to say, it has so many victims at the bottom.

Capt. Baxter Davis is all smiles when he has a good day for selling tickets.

November was on good behavior from start to finish and December opened in brightness and beauty. None of us, however, will forget rainy July, August and October.

The hog killing season is a delight to many people and fresh sausage and fat spare ribs were never better. It is a pity that hogs have not more brains, but then they are scarce with raw too.

Farmville has charms for the slumpden Sidney boys that it did not have before. The Normal girls are with us and in their presence it found the charming magnet. No man of good sense and good taste can blame them.

I believe our dentists are the busiest workers in town. The strenuous' work of the town, however, for the next few weeks will be done over the dispensary counter.

The town mule is looking 'far and fine,' and altogether is the most satisfied looking animal I know of.

Old hares are not as plentiful as I have seen them in our market, though now and then we do get a bite at a hind leg or a loin. The latter is the choice bit of the whole body.

The Presbyterians have listened to the voice of their new pipe organ and are delighted with it, and our Baptist friends are already in love with their new pastor. The happy day for the Methodists will be when they enter their new church building, and then all of the town will rally to congratulate them for they will occupy the best church in all Southside Virginia, and the man in the pulpit is worthy the place and the people.

Obviates the use of poisonous drugs. It renders the entire system so naturally healthy that disease can find no lurking place. It rids the organism of disease, and at any reasonable stage effects a rapid, natural cure, regardless of the gravity or form of the disorder.

Oxydonor compels the free absorption of oxygen through the lungs, which sends it coursing through every vein and nerve in the body, and it is this oxygen that builds up sound sleep and good appetite.

It strengthens the whole body, increases the vitality and makes it glow with health and vigor in every cell, tissue and organ.

It is a positive cure for Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Throat and Lung Troubles, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Liver and Kidney Troubles, Female Complaints, Headache, Backache, Sciatica, Paralysis, Epilepsy, Locomotor Ataxia, Anæmia, Consumption in its early stages, Diphtheria, Scarlet Fever, Typhoid Fever, Malaria, Blood Poisoning, Cancer, Tumor, Erysipelas, Eczema, Boils, Carbuncles, Sores, Ulcers, Abscesses, Piles, Fistula, Gout, Dropsy, Diabetes, Bright's Disease, Insomnia, Hysteria, Nervous Prostration
